

HOWARD NOT ANXIOUS

To Contest the North District With A. C. Sherman.

SOME GOSSIP ABOUT THE PROSPECTS

Who the Populist Candidates May Be—Other Political News.

There will be an interesting contest for the election of the member of the legislature from the Thirty-fifth representative district this fall.

This is the district north of the river including the First ward, which was represented in the last legislature by A. C. Sherman, who seat was contested by D. M. Howard, who was declared seated by the Populist house although Mr. Sherman received a majority of 444 votes.

At last Saturday's primaries Mr. Sherman was renominated by a majority of over 500 votes, receiving a majority of the votes cast in every precinct in the district.

Who the Populists will nominate is not yet decided, but it is known that they expect to make a fight.

Mr. Sherman says if Howard is renominated he will not be satisfied unless he (Sherman) receives a majority of 888, just double the vote of two years ago.

Mr. Howard has said he was anxious to meet Mr. Sherman again before the voters of the district, but to a State Journal reporter who asked him about the matter he said he would prefer not being the candidate this year. He said: "There is only one condition under which I would accept the nomination, and I do not propose to name that condition for fear my friends would bring it about. There are other men in the district who can make just as good a fight as I, and I am willing that they shall have the opportunity."

There was some talk of a fusion candidate for representative in this district, and for some time the leading Populists of the district agreed that they would be willing to endorse Mr. William Green, of Green & Kato, if he should be nominated by the Democrats, but since the commonwealth movement has been so much talked about, Mr. Green has given some utterances the Populists say they can't stand, and all prospect of his endorsement from that source has now vanished.

Among the middle of the road Populists who are talked of in connection with the nomination are D. M. Howard, John Schenck, a North Topeka lawyer, E. T. James and Wm. Bond of Rossville and Andy Coleman who lives just north of the city.

The district central committee will meet next week to fix the date of the nominating convention.

MR. WHALEY TO MR. STAGG.

Mr. Whaley Explains Some Things in His "Journal" Interview.

Sir:—In reply to Mr. Stagg's article in last evening's JOURNAL, I have this to say: In plain English that part of my interview relating to Mr. Stagg means that I saw him after regular hours come out of and lock the door to an office adjoining the secretary of state's and walk down the state house steps with him, at the time the election returns were coming in to the secretary of state and at the time that the transposition was made in the Haskell county returns, and "he was not employed in any capacity for the state at the time."

I did not use the words "canvassing board," for the executive council did not resolve itself into a canvassing board until the manipulations had been perfected. It is unfortunate for Mr. Stagg that this interview occurred just as a revolt is going on in the fraternal organization of which he has been recently elected to the office of grand recorder, caused partially by the thing he infers was meant in the interview. E. B. WHALEY.

NOT A RAILROAD MAN.

D. L. Furbeck Not Regarded as a Representative.

The Republican railroad men say that D. L. Furbeck who was nominated by the Populists for lieutenant governor is not a representative railroad man as has been claimed for him.

F. W. Wright, chairman of the grievance committee of the Order of Railway Conductors who lives at Wichita in an interview said:

"The Populists claim that Furbeck is a representative railroad man in ranking in our breasts. Furbeck is not a representative railroad man. He has not been identified with their interests for years. His nomination was not at the solicitation or by the consent of either the Order of Railway Employees or the Order of Railway Conductors. We regard any attempt of the Populists to represent him as such as a wilful misrepresentation."

THE TENNESSEANS.

Arrangements Made to Entertain the Visitors on Sunday.

Secretary Chas. E. Gault of the Kansas Republican league has appointed the following committee to arrange for the entertainment of the Tennessee delegation to the national convention next Sunday: J. G. Slonecker, Eugene F. Ware, P. G. Noel, Geo. W. Veale, T. J. Anderson, C. S. Elliott, Geo. W. Crane, J. S. Collins, J. K. Hudson and D. W. Mulvane.

This committee will meet at the Copeland this evening and arrange the details for the entertainment of the southern visitors, who will be in Topeka three hours on Sunday. They will arrive at 10 o'clock and at 1 o'clock will leave for Denver over the Rock Island.

SNOW'S ROOM TOO HOT.

Populists Don't Want to Rent the Headquarters on Eighth.

State Printer Snow wants the Populists state central committee to locate their headquarters for the campaign in the Populists league rooms on East Eighth street.

Mr. Snow has had these rooms rented for several months and like George W. Crane, having leased the rooms, he would like to have the committee make use of them.

Several members of the committee, however, object because the rooms are too warm. They think that will be enough of a "hoodoo" for this campaign.

POPULIST COUNTY CONVENTION.

It Will Probably Be Called for About July 20.

The Populist county central committee will at its meeting tomorrow afternoon issue the call for its county convention to nominate county officers.

The convention will probably be called for about the middle of July. The fusion element of the party which controlled the last county convention want the convention called for July 20. A full county ticket is to be nominated. The county central committee will meet in the Populist league rooms on Eighth street.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CHESNEY IS BITTER.

He Will Issue an Address Against
E. M. Cockrell.

TO BE BACKED UP BY AFFIDAVITS

That He Used Improper Methods to Secure His Nomination—Other Politicians Make Light of Chesney's Charges.

Local politicians are considerably excited over the report that Justice A. F. Chesney has decided to use his influence to defeat the Republican nominee for clerk of the district court, E. M. Cockrell.

It was hinted before the vote was canvassed that Chesney, who was a candidate for the nomination, would contest the right of Cockrell to the nomination on the ground that he had made use of money to buy votes, but nothing was done, and Cockrell was declared the nominee by the county central committee.

Justice Chesney was asked today by a Journal reporter whether he intended to contest the nomination and said: "No, it is to late now to contest the nomination. I will issue an address in a few days reciting how the nomination was secured if I can get the affidavits that have been promised me and which I have good reason to believe will be made."

"I am told that free beer was kept during the time the primaries were held on Saturday at a place near Wolff's packing house and the fellows there were whooping it up for Cockrell all day. I am also told that free beer was kept on tap all day at the old Logan house in the interest of Cockrell."

"Is it true as reported that you will attempt to prove that Cockrell spent $2,000 to secure the nomination?"

"I will not say what I will attempt to prove. In my addresses I will cover every point upon which I can secure affidavits."

The county officers laugh at Chesney's position. They say that he is the last man who should make charges against any of the candidates, and if there is any one of the many candidates that did not spend money that one is Cockrell.

BREIDENTHAL'S PLANS.

Expects to Open the Campaign in August—Three Men Scatter "Literature."

Chairman Breidenthal of the Populist state central committee, said this morning that he does not expect to open formal headquarters until the first of August.

This does not mean, however, that he will not begin the campaign until that time, for the Populist campaign has not ceased since the election of two years ago.

Chairman Breidenthal has had three men constantly engaged since the first of January mailing and distributing campaign literature and these men will look after the work of billing speakers and arranging county meetings and picnics until the state headquarters are formally opened.

The news had just come to Mr. Breidenthal that Mrs. Clara B. Colby of Washington, D. C., editor of the Woman's Tribune, has come out for Populism. She has volunteered to devote a month to the campaign in Kansas.

A. M. Harvey of Topekas has been chosen chairman of the Populist central committee of this congressional district and Van R. Holmes of Emporia is chairman of the executive committee. These men will have charge of the details of S. M. Scott's congressional campaign.

The Populist League will meet at its rooms on Eighth street tonight. The members of the Woman's Progressive Political club are expected to be present. Governor Lewelling came up from his home at Wichita last night and is at his desk today.

HARRINGTON FLOPS OVER.

A Prominent Democratic Editor Takes His Paper to the Populists.

There is great rejoicing at the state house today over the announcement made in this week's issue of the Kansas Democrat, published at Hiawatha by G. W. and W. P. Harrington, that their paper will from this time forward advocate Populism.

The Harringtons have been prominent in Kansas Democratic circles and Grant Harrington was an applicant for the appointment of postmaster at Hiawatha, but the appointment went to another man. Their paper, while Democratic, has always advocated equal suffrage, and they now say that the action of the Populist state convention has induced them to change their party affiliations.

Another news item of this kind was received by Chairman Breidenthal today and that was that John Malloy, a prominent Chase county Democrat, has refused to be considered as a Democratic candidate for county attorney, and announces that he will support the Populist state ticket.

The Mississippi River.

It has been estimated by competent civil engineers that the Mississippi river annually discharges 19,500,000,000 cubic feet of water into the gulf of Mexico. Of this prodigious quantity the one-twenty-nine hundredth part is sediment. Thus it will be seen that the Mississippi annually deposits enough mud in the gulf to cover a square mile of surface to a depth of 240 feet.

Black toilets are very fashionable this season, and the handsome black grenadines have in a great degree usurped black lace in fashionable favor.

Among summer tints for evening pale rose color and honeysuckle yellow vie with each other and often appear together in shot fabrics or trimmings.

Beautiful white toilets for dress occasions and chic white costumes of serge, sacking and similar fabrics will be in special favor the summer season through.

Small fruits appear among the hat and bonnet garniture of the season. These trimmings are much liked and very often worn by the daughters of the Princess of Wales.

Black, in combination with pure white or softer, less trying cream tints, still appears among the handsome toilets for evening wear, for plainer gowns for dressy afternoon uses, and likewise among the stylish capes and jackets of satin, lace and jetted net.—New York Post.
